

International business game

Diploma : Bachelor in Management Thirds Year

Description : The international business game is a management simulation that makes students aware of business issues in an international context. It is played by teams, and it involves analyzing the current situation, making choices and taking decisions. It takes place during the "Nuit de l'international" organized by IAE France in January.

Hours : 06

ECTS : 3

Level : beginner

